Seaham's War Dead & Servicemen

Contents

1. Roll of Honour at New Seaham Working Men's Club (The Nack Club), dealing with those members who fought and/or died in the Great War 1914-18. The list was unveiled by 'Mr. Seaham' himself, Malcolm Dillon, J.P., on February 21 1920. For many years the Roll of Honour was hidden away in the attic of the Nack Club but recently came to light. It has been repaired and is on display in the foyer of the club. A few of the names have details of their deaths beside them but the bulk do not and it is not made clear whether these men were killed or returned safe from the war.
2. War Memorial at New Seaham Park which bears the inscription ' This memorial was erected by the Workmen and Friends of New Seaham in Sacred Rememberence of their Comrades who fell in the Great War 1914-18'. There is no mention of those who fought and returned.
3. Roll of Honour at New Seaham Christ Church, dealing with those members of the Seaham Lodge of the DMA (Durham Miners' Association) who fought in the Great War 1914-18. Beside a very few of the names there are brief details of their deaths but clearly far more were killed than this list suggests.
4. List of New Seaham parish men killed in the Great War carved on the screen in New Seaham Christ Church.
5. List of (Old) Seaham men killed in the Great War, displayed at St. Mary the Virgin
6. List of men from the parish killed in the Great War, displayed at St. Mary Magdalene's.
7. Dawdon Miners Lodge Memorial: Members and sons of workmen of Dawdon Colliery who gave their lives in the cause of freedom 1914-1918.(The Great War).
8. St.Hild & St.Helens (Dawdon Parish) War Memorial 1914-1918:
'To the Glory of God and in memory of those from this Parish who gave their lives for their Country in The Great War 1914-1918.'
9. Roll of Honour of men employed in the Marquis of Londonderry's Collieries and Estates who served in H.M.Army and Navy 1914-1918.The returns show: Seaham Colliery 1,087 men; Dawdon Colliery 723 men; Londonderry Offices,Seaham Harbour 13 men; Seaham Estate 24 men; Seaham Harbour Engine Works 12 men; Seaham Harbour Wagon Works 10 men; Distinguished Conduct Awards.
